GOVERNOR TENER AND OTHERS HERE

Railroad Presidents, Members of Anniversary Commission and Others Meet here to Arrange Matters for the Celebration.

Governor Tener, President Baer of the Reading, President Fitzgerald of the Western Maryland, Colonel J. M. Schoonmaker of the Fiftieth Anniversary Commission, Colonel Lewis E. Beiler, its secretary, Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart and a number of other railroad officials and Anniversary Commission members met in Gettysburg today to go over various matters in connection with the transportation problem here in July and with other phases of the big celebration.

Governor Tener was the guest of President Baer and other Reading Railroad men who arrived here from

GOVERNOR TENER

Harrisburg about half past ten this morning in a special train. President Fitzgerald and others connected with the Western Maryland came in Thursday evening in Mr. Fitzgerald's private car and Colonel Schoonmaker arrived on the 8:41 over the Western Maryland in his Pittsburgh and Lake Erie car.

With these railway systems represented by their chiefs and the state represented by its Executive, the stupendous problem of transportation was placed in the hands of the highest authorities concerned and every detail was gone over with the greatest care.

It is the opinion of many that the question of caring for the enormous crowds at Gettysburg is not the most serious with which the Commission will have to deal, but that the work of getting the veterans and other visitors here will be far more of a problem. The restricted railroad facilities, and the complete absence of any trolley connection with nearby towns makes the handling of a crowd of 200,000 people almost an impossibility when it is considered that a year or more ago the railroads gave their combined capacity at less than 20,000 a day while very little has been done to better that condition since the day when the estimate was made.

The scheme, which is advanced by many living at a distance, of rooming in Hanover, York, Hagerstown or Chambersburg and coming to Gettysburg in the morning on each day will never work out, it is stated, because there will be no means to get them here by rail and only the automobile owner will have any way at all of going between this and another town.

It was this problem that occupied much of the time of those who visited town today and every phase of the problem was gone over with the utmost care. The plans considered were not completed at the time of going to press but it is understood that measures were adopted to allow the roads to cope as far as possible with the proposition.

The visitors held sessions both morning and afternoon and were entertained at luncheon by President Granville at the White House.

Colonel Beiler and several other members of the Fiftieth Anniversary Commission were here on the additional mission of inspecting the buildings of the college and seminary in order to map out the definite use of the various portions by the guests of honor who will be here during the celebration. Several hundred visitors, members of the diplomatic corps, governors of the various states, and other prominent men will be given quarters in one or other of the buildings and the details of this plan were considered by Colonel Beiler and his associates.

BUSINESS OF LOCAL INTEREST

State Law Makers in Session at Harrisburg, Transact Business of Importance to Gettysburg and Adams County Residents.

Our state legislators continue to transact much business of interest and importance to Gettysburg and Adams county people.

Approval was given on Thursday to the resolution requesting the Gettysburg semi-centennial commission to broaden the scope of the provision made for the attendance as guests of the State so as to include all Union soldiers, sailors and marines of the Civil War who enlisted as from Pennsylvania or who are now living in this State, those who served in Pennsylvania emergency regiments of the Union army and all soldiers who served in the Confederate Army and now living in Pennsylvania.

Every newspaper in the county is affected by the bill which Governor Tener has approved which prohibits the publication in newspapers, periodicals, circulars, letters or other publications of false or misleading statements or assertions regarding merchandise, securities or services under penalty of fine of not over $1,000 or imprisonment for sixty days or both.

George M. Miller's charges against Judge W. F. Sadler, of the Cumberland county courts, were declared not worth considering and the House of Representatives agreed to forget them. Miller made some remarkable charges against the Cumberland jurist a week or so ago, one being that he had not called out the State police to protect his farm when tormentors appeared and he used up a dozen sheets of paper to criticize the way the judge conducted trials. He wound up by asking impeachment, which has become popular since the publicity given to the Wilkes-Barre affair. Chairman Rockwell, of the House judiciary committee, reported that the committee had found nothing in the charges to warrant impeachment, which put the Miller communication into the archives.

The bill to make the blue violet the State flower of Pennsylvania was postponed on second reading in the House Wednesday after some amendments had been made to make it legal form. The difficulty came when the clause establishing June 14 as the official flower day was reached. That day was provided as daisy day when the bill was originally drafted to make the daisy the official flower. The members seemed to have the idea that violets would not be as abundant in June as desirable for an official flower.

REMARKABLE RECOVERY

After an Illness of Eighteen Months Girl is Suddenly Cured.

After being wheeled about in a chair for 18 months, suffering from spinal trouble and rheumatism that prevented her from using her legs, Anna, the fifteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Jamison, of Lehman, near Spring Grove, in some manner unknown has been cured and is now able to walk. The cure is considered almost miraculous. The girl told her father that the pain from which she had been suffering had suddenly left her. The father asked her to try and walk. She arose to her feet and walked across the room. She is now able to take long strolls.

New Children will be Received in Primary Grade on April First. Easter Holidays being Enjoyed. To Give Prize for Essay.

The newly elected primary teacher, Miss Blanche Stoops, will enter upon her duties Tuesday, April 1, and the children of the town who are now six years old or who will be six before the last of May will be admitted to school on that date. This new school will be opened for the present season in the High Street building where all beginners will report. All who desire to enter should be present on the first day and not later.

The children of the Seventh and Eighth grades will participate during the next few weeks in an essay contest conducted under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. It will be on a subject covering the evils of the cigarette habit. The prize was provided by the late Philip Houck and will be announced later.

The teachers and pupils of the public schools of town are enjoying a three days' rest from their studies. The schools were closed for Good Friday and the usual Saturday and Sunday recess gives a welcome relief to their studies.

The boys of the High School are preparing to put a good baseball team in the field to fill out the schedule announced in The Times a short while ago. There is much good material in the school and a creditable showing is expected.

Children from all the schools may be seen almost any clear afternoon enjoying themselves on lots recently purchased by Mr. Kurtz of Philadelphia with the announced intention of equipping the same for a borough playground. Although nothing has yet been done to equip the place the boys enjoy themselves thoroughly on the ground which has been thrown open for their use.

Mountain Trolley Work is being Pushed Right Along.

Work on the construction of the trolley extension from Highfield to Monterey lane is being pushed along rapidly. The ties have been placed almost the entire distance and the rails have been laid for about 2700 feet of the new route, leaving only about 700 feet to lay. The poles have been put up and the wires strung and current is sent over the line for pulling the work car. The car is now run over the new track whenever there is the necessity for it there. No definite time has been set for opening the extension to travel. When the excursion and summer season opens a shuttle car will be used between Pen-Mar and Monterey lane.

He lifted the lid of the tin box, which had been covered with bags, and found the articles stated. The finding of the dynamite and other articles remains a mystery.

HOLD MRS. EATON FOR MURDER

Admiral's Widow Accused of Poisoning Him.

SENT TO JAIL WITHOUT BAIL

Woman Was Taken Into Custody When It Was Shown Arsenic Killed Retired Naval Officer.

Hingham, Mass., March 21.—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, widow of Rear Admiral Joseph W. Eaton, U. S. N., retired, was arrested here, charged with the murder of her husband, whose recent death under mysterious circumstances has been under investigation.

District Attorney A. F. Barker announced the arrest in the following statement:

"Mrs. Eaton is under arrest, charged with the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph Eaton.

"Admiral Eaton did not die a natural death. This fact was communicated to me on March 10 by Prof. Whitney in a preliminary verbal report, and has been known to the officers working on the case since that time.

"Death was due to arsenical poisoning. Peculiar features which are involved have prevented the authorities from communicating them to the public.

"We have been unable thus far to ascertain where the poison was obtained.

"Mrs. Eaton was arrested at her home at Assinippi.

Before Mrs. Eaton was taken before Judge Pratt she telephoned to her counsel, Francis J. Geegan, who hurried to court in an automobile.

Mrs. Eaton later was arraigned before Judge Pratt, who conducted the inquest into the admiral's death. She pleaded not guilty and was committed to jail without bail for a further hearing on March 28.

Mrs. Eaton held a whispered conversation with her lawyer, but made no outward protest against going to jail. There was no demonstration of grief or anger. Apparently she had decided to accept with stoicism her commitment. She asked that her daughters be notified at once and wished them to visit her in jail without delay.

"I feel sure that everything will come out all right," said Mrs. Eaton, and she indicated by her demeanor that she believed this.

Mrs. Eaton's arrest came as the climax of a sensational and mysterious tragedy which has stirred New England greatly. First she professed deep grief; then she indignantly denied that any suspicion could rest on her, and finally she went about her affairs apparently completely unperturbed.

The little community in which the Eaton family lived was thrown into a high state of excitement by the arrest of Mrs. Eaton. Friends of the accused woman declared their belief that she would be able to clear her name of the charge against her.

Rear Admiral Eaton died suddenly on the morning of March 8. He was sixty-six years of age, but, according to his friends, had been in perfect health. Two days later the funeral was held at Dracut, his former home. There was no service at the grave, and, besides the undertakers and the newspaper men, only the widow and her daughter by another marriage witnessed the interment. There were no military honors.

The rear admiral had seen thirty-nine years' service in the navy. He commanded the transport Recluse at Santiago, Cuba, and received a medal of honor for his share in that battle. He was born at Greenville, Ala., and was married twice.

The present Mrs. Eaton was the admiral's second wife, and she formerly was the wife of D. A. Ainsworth, once a clerk in the United States senate. Her father was Geo. Harrison, and the family home was at Alexandria, Va. She is forty years of age.

The investigation is said to have developed that her married life was not altogether happy. Her explanation that her husband died from an attack of indigestion did not satisfy the medical examiner, and after conferring with the family physician he delayed the preparation of the body for burial until a postmortem had been made.

Elliot May Be Ambassador.
Washington, March 21.—Information reached the White House, it is said, that reports that Dr. Charles W. Elliot, president emeritus of Harvard, would decline a diplomatic appointment did not come from Dr. Elliot. In view of this it was said that he now is foremost under consideration for ambassador to the court of St. James. It has been reported that Dr. Elliot declined a similar offer from Mr. Taft.

Two Drown in the Delaware.
Trenton, N. J., March 21.—Two boys were drowned in the Delaware river here when a rowboat, in which they were crossing the stream to the Pennsylvania side, capsized. Their identity has not yet been established.

Bill Forbids Long Hatpins.
Trenton, N. J., March 21.—The lower house of the legislature passed a bill forbidding women to wear long hatpins. Violation of the statute is punishable by a fine.

Boy Kills Schoolgirl.
Scranton, Pa., March 21.—During recess at the Unionsdale school, near Carbondale, Berish Rounds, ten years old, was killed by William Gilroy, aged fifteen years, a schoolmate, who was carelessly handling a rifle in his home across the street. The child was walking on the playgrounds with two other girls when the bullet struck her in the head.

THE POPE UNABLE TO RECEIVE DIAZ

Physician Fears Audience Would be Too Great a Strain.

Rome, March 21.—Professor Marchafava, consulting physician to Pope Pius, refused to allow the pontiff to receive General Porfirio Diaz, former president of Mexico. He considered that the audience would be a dangerous strain on the pope in his weakened condition.

The newspaper Corriere della Sera stated that the pope celebrated mass on Wednesday against the advice of his physicians, and that this, taken together with other duties he insisted upon performing, greatly weakened him.

He has been advised to go to the Venetian mountains for a change of air and scene, but he will not listen to such a proposition.

Professor Marchafava, the pope's physician, said that he was afraid the pope would not last long. In any case he will not resume his audiences for a month.

SUES WEALTHY WOMEN

Seeks to Recover Share of Fair Estate From Heirs.

New York, March 21.—Another suit for one forty-second part of the estate left by Mrs. Caroline D. Fair, who was killed by her husband, Charles L. Fair, in an automobile accident in France in 1902, was brought in the supreme court.

This is the fifth suit of the same nature begun by the children of Mrs. Sarah Leder, who was a sister of Mrs. Fair.

Mrs. Herman Oelrichs and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, sisters of Charles L. Fair, are named as defendants with others, as in all the other suits.

Mrs. Ann B. Leonard, the plaintiff in the latest action, was formerly Miss Annie Leder. It is alleged the estate should have been administered in New York state instead of in California, thus changing the right of relatives to the residuary estate.

FRAIL, SICKLY CHILD
Restored to Health by Vinol—A Letter to Mothers.
Anxious mothers often wonder why their children are so pale, thin and nervous and have so little appetite. For the benefit of such mothers in this vicinity we publish the following letter:
J. Edmund Miller, New Haven, Conn., says: "My little daughter ever since her birth had been frail and sickly, and was a constant source of worry. Several months ago we commenced to give her Vinol. I immediately noted an improvement in her health and appearance, and from the good it has done her I can truly say it will do all you claim."
This child's recovery was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements extracted from cods' livers, combined with the blood making and strength creating properties of tonic iron, which are contained in Vinol.
Vinol will build up and strengthen delicate children, old people, and the weak, run-down and debilitated. We return the money in every case where it fails. The People's Drug Store Gettysburg, Pa.

IS IT YOUR KIDNEY?
Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles. A Gettysburg Citizen Gives a Valuable Hint.
Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is where danger often lies. You should realize that these troubles often lead to dropsy or Bright's disease. An effective remedy for weak or aching kidneys is Doan's Kidney Pills. Read the experience of a resident of Gettysburg who has tested Doan's.
Charles Wilson, farmer, R. F. D. No. 5, Gettysburg, Pa., says: "I have used several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and have found them satisfactory for kidney complaint. I had sharp twinges across the small of my back and in my sides. By using Doan's Kidney Pills in time I was rid of these troubles. I was rid of these troubles. I strongly recommend this preparation.

WILSON RESIGNS IN A HURRY
Acting Secretary of State at Odds Over China.

ATTACKS THE NEW POLICIES

Bitterly Criticizes Change in Attitude in Far East and Upholds Abandoned Policy.

Washington, March 21.—Huntington Wilson, assistant secretary of state, who has been acting secretary in the absence from the capital of Secretary Bryan, has resigned and insisted upon immediate acceptance.
The resignation is based upon his radical difference of opinion with the administration regarding its Chinese policies. President Wilson immediately accepted the resignation.
Mr. Wilson, like all the assistant secretaries of the various departments, offered his resignation, as is customary, to President Wilson directly upon the latter's assumption of office. He was requested to continue in his place until it should be convenient for the president to name his successor.
Mr. Wilson consented to do so to accommodate Secretary Bryan, who desired to make his present visit to Lincoln, Neb. This action involved the abandonment of reservation which Mr. Wilson had made on a steamship sailing for Europe last Tuesday.
The issuing of the statement from the White House defining the administration's attitude regarding the $125,000,000 Chinese loan negotiation is believed to have been regarded by the assistant secretary as sufficient to justify him in requesting to be relieved at once from duty.
After telegraphic notice to Secretary Bryan of his intentions, Mr. Wilson dispatched a note to the White House terminating his service. President Wilson immediately designated the second assistant secretary, A. A. Adee, to act as secretary until Mr. Bryan returned.
A probable result of the resignation will be the immediate appointment of John Bassett Moore as counselor of the department of state with authority to act as secretary.
In a long letter to President Wilson, the former acting secretary set forth that when he consented to continue for a time with the new administration he did not understand there was to be any radical change of policy for which he would be called upon to be spokesman.
"It becomes the duty of the acting secretary of state," the letter continues, "in dispatching instructions to the representatives of this government abroad and as the channel of communications with the representatives of foreign governments at Washington, to be spokesman of the president in regard to a new Far Eastern policy, which is apparently deducible from your statement issued to the press."
"I had no reason to suppose that the officials on duty in the department of state would learn first from the newspapers of a declaration of policy, which, I think, shows on its face the inadequacy of consideration given to the facts and theories involved and the failure clearly to apprehend the motives leading to and the purposes of the policy superseded."
"I had no reason to suppose that the fate of the negotiations, which so long had the studios attention of the foreign officers of six great powers, would be abruptly determined with such quite unnecessary haste and in so unusual a manner. These methods, against which I respectfully protest, are the very extraordinary circumstances which I feel vitiate my understanding with Mr. Bryan and completely relieve me of any further obligation in the premises."
"The repeated utterances of the last administration must have made it perfectly clear that the motive and purpose of the policy now abandoned were first and primarily the protection of China's integrity and sovereignty, the uplift of the Chinese people, morally, materially and governmentally, the development of China's resources and the maintenance of our traditional policy of the 'open door' or equality of opportunity for American enterprise."

AUSTRIA FORCES CRISIS

Makes Demand on Montenegro and Sends Warship to Scene.
Vienna, Austria, March 21.—The Austrian government brought the Balkan situation close to a crisis by making several peremptory demands on Montenegro.
The Austrian minister at Cetinje, the Montenegrin capital, was instructed to inform the Montenegrin government that it must comply with the following:
The free exit from the fortress of Scutari of all non-combatants.
Violent conversions must cease instantly.
Full satisfaction must be given for the violence shown by the Montenegrins and Servians at San Giovanni di Medua, on the Adriatic coast, toward the crew of the Austrian merchant vessel Skodra.
Three Austrian battleships and three smaller warships have left Pola. It is supposed they are to support the demands.

MILITANTS BURN WIDOW'S HOME
Country House of Lady White Put to Torch.
London, March 21.—Incendiary fire, started by suffragettes, completely destroyed an unoccupied country home at Englefield Green, owned by Lady White, widow of Sir George White, the hero of Ladysmith in the Boer War. The loss is about $20,000.
The police were left in no doubt as to who started the fire. "Stop torturing our comrades in prison," was the legend on placards posted around the burned house, and "Votes for Women" posters also were in evidence.
Scotland Yard detectives were out searching for two women who were seen riding away from the White home and were allowed to pass by the police. The women were on bicycles, and the policemen stopped them because one of them had no light. It is now believed that they were the suffragettes who fired the house.
Lady White is in France. She has not occupied the Englefield Green residence since the king allotted her quarters in Hampton Court palace, in recognition of the heroic service of her late husband.
A band of suffragettes also burned down the buildings on the golf links at Weston-Super-Mare, the fashionable summer watering place in Somersetshire.

ARREST BANK CLERK
Employee Accused of Shortage in Accounts of $5000.
Reading, Pa., March 21.—United States Commissioner Maltzberger issued a warrant here for the arrest of William E. Gehry, until recently employed in a clerical capacity at the Penn National bank, charging him with falsifying his accounts.
The amount of the shortage is said to be more than $5000. Gehry, in default of bail, was taken to Philadelphia to be lodged in prison to await trial.

SAYS MADERO WAS MURDERED

Mexican Refugee Says He Can Prove It.

CRITICISES U. S. AMBASSADOR

Declares He Was Betrayed by Wilson, Who Refused to Intercede to Save Him From Arrest and Death.

San Francisco, March 21.—Colonel Manuel Blanco Alcala, publisher of the New Era, a Mexico City newspaper generally regarded as the most reliable of the late President Madero's administration, arrived here with the assertion that he "is in a position to prove" that Madero was shot to death and that Vice President Suarez was strangled to death in the national palace on the night of Feb. 23, and that their bodies were taken to the prison in an automobile.
"The reported assault by the guard," said Alcala, "was merely a farcical ruse and a part of the plot. If the automobile was fired upon the guards were only pouring lead into the dead bodies of the president and vice president, who had been murdered in the palace hours before."
Colonel Alcala described himself as an intimate friend of Madero. His mission in the United States, he said, would be to expose a plot which had brought about the Diaz uprising and the deaths of Madero and Suarez.
Accompanied by his wife, two small children and his brother, Joaquin, an army captain, Alcala fled from Mexico City, Feb. 23, taking an obscure route to Salina Cruz.
The party disguised themselves as peasants. On reaching the west coast port they remained in seclusion for twelve days, believing they would be killed if discovered by agents of the new government. They chartered a barge to reach Acapulco, whence they took passage with other refugees.
Colonel Alcala asserted the news of Madero's fate was known in Washington before the hour named in the official version as the time of the alleged attempt to rescue him.
"As a matter of fact," said Colonel Alcala, "President Madero and Vice President Suarez were killed between 8 and 9:30 o'clock, Mexico City time, on the night of Feb. 22. The president was shot from behind and the powder burned his neck. Suarez was choked to death. His secretary, Fernandez de la Reguera, saw the body two days later and there were finger marks on the throat. One eye had been forced from its socket and the tongue protruded."
Colonel Alcala was positive in his assertion that Madame Madero had told him there was no hope for her husband, basing this fear on an interview she had with American Ambassador Wilson on the afternoon of Feb. 22.
"Madame Madero and Madame Suarez went together to the ambassador to implore him to intercede for their husbands' lives," he said. "I saw them when they left the embassy, and they told me there was no hope. They said Ambassador Wilson had expressed to them his belief that the president and vice president would be executed, as the Huertistas regarded their deaths as necessary for the good of the country."
"General Ascarride was in command of the guard that night. I was told by another officer of the guard that it was he who shot Madero and Suarez."
Later in his criticism of Ambassador Wilson, Colonel Alcala declared the American diplomat had declined to intercede to save him from arrest and death.

Girls Jump From Burning Building.
Philadelphia, March 21.—Fire, causing damage amounting to $200,000, destroyed the three-story laboratory of the Munyon Homeopathic Home Remedy company, at Fifty-third and Jefferson streets. When the fire started over 150 girls and men were working in the building. A cry of alarm given by Harry Bixler, who was in charge of the storeroom in the basement, where the fire started, caused the girls to run to the street. Twelve jumped from the second-story windows to the tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad, fifteen feet below. None was hurt in the jump.
